THEME FOR THE MONTH

Embracing New Possibilities Through Preparation

SCRIPTURE FOR THE YEAR

Isaiah 43:19

“Behold, I will do a new thing; now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert.”

OVERVIEW FOR THE MONTH

As we begin the month of September, we are approaching the final quarter of the year. God is bringing us to a place where we must prepare for the blessings, the challenges, the opportunities, and the lessons that He has for us. Preparation is not simply waiting for something new to happen; it is allowing God to shape us now for what He is preparing to do next.

Throughout this month, we will discover that God has already been preparing us in ways we may not have recognized. He has anointed us for purpose, called us to walk confidently in the person He created us to be, and used previous experiences to equip us for future assignments. Like David, we cannot always see what our present battles are preparing us to face, but nothing God allows us to learn is wasted.

As we continue Embracing New Possibilities, our prayer for September is that God will make us ready for what is next. We will not enter the next season trying to wear someone else's armor or depending only upon yesterday's strength. We will trust the anointing God has placed upon our lives, embrace who He has created us to be, and recognize that the lessons of yesterday may be the preparation we need for tomorrow. New possibilities require prepared people, and by the grace of God, we are getting ready for what is next!
